Concertina conversion mechanism

Briefly lifting the front of the sofa frame (1) and pulling it towards you (2) is all it takes for the sleeping area to unfold; the side elements can be lowered in three settings down to a fully horizontal position.

The conversion from a bed back to a sofa is just as easy: Gently pull the loop at the back upwards (3), and the sleeping area folds up again (4); don't forget to hide the loop again before the folding action is completed!
